

Tolerance: The gift of Goodwill

What? A unique opportunity for dialogue, discussion and debate sponsored by Multi-Faith Women of Hampton Roads, for men and women of all ages and faiths.

When? Sunday, May 23, 2010, 2:00 p.m.

Where? United Jewish Community Centre, 2700 Spring Rd, Newport News, 23606

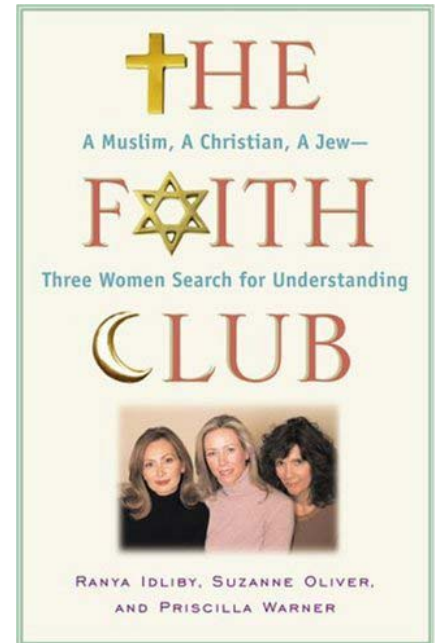

This interactive seminar, sponsored by Multi-Faith Women of Hampton Roads (MFWHR) is motivated by 'The Faith Club', a story of three women—a Muslim, a Christian and a Jew—who come together in an attempt to expand their understanding beyond cultural stereotypes. After reading the book five Peninsula women of different faiths created a local group based on the Faith Club model, this local group, is pleased to be able to present a seminar bringing together three fascinating speakers—two of the authors of 'The Faith Club', and J.J. Miller.

Ranya Idilby is an American of Palestinian descent, residing in New York City. She earned her MS in International Relations from the London School of Economics. Ranya co-authored 'The Faith Club'.

Priscilla Warner, living in a suburb of New York City, began her interfaith education at a Hebrew day school. She graduated from the University of Pennsylvania. Priscilla co-authored 'The Faith Club'

J.J. Miller hails from Newport News and now lives with her husband in New York City. She graduated from the University of North Carolina and currently serves as Producer for Oprah and Friends on XM Satellite Radio.
